

Pentecost

The word "Pentecost" is derived from the Greek word for "fifty." The Day of Pentecost, as recorded in Acts 2, occurred 50 days after Jesus' resurrection and 10 days after His ascension. The day celebrates the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples following Jesus' ascension.